JOE BROWN MAJOR TRIAL - April 02, 2017

Originally known as the Border Trial, this event continued with more classes and a new trophy and was renamed and combined with the Major Trial in 1999 in honour of Joe Brown who passed away from cancer in 1998. This trial is the third of five leading to the VMC's trials championship and is the 17th annual running organized by the Fracy family. Perfect trials weather was in store for 33 competitors (including four Beginners with small wheels riding separate sections) that entered to ride three loops around the ISTC property near Shawnigan Lake with 10 sections in each loop and sections varied for the different classes. Notable rides of the day were made by Ryon Bell in the Expert class who lost only one point while Kevin Couves continued his hot riding this year with another win in the Senior Intermediate class. In the Beginner class Raquel Cottier beat her brother and took the win.

Thanks to Lorraine Fracy for doing ALL the sign up and results on her own. Rick Whiting (from Nanaimo) and Kevin Couves laid out the Junior/Intermediate loop while Brandon Volk and Mike Balfour helped Steve Fracy with the Expert Sportsman loop and sections. Vinny's Gourmet Dogs handled the lunch. Thanks to all.
