

VICTORIA MOTORCYCLE CLUB RESULTS

LOHRMANN TRIAL—NOV 27, 2016

It was a wet, cool day that greeted 37 riders, a few from Nanaimo, that entered the annual Lohrmann Trial held on the club's property. Previously named the Millstream Trial, this event was renamed in honour of former member George Lohrmann and for his huge contributions to the VMC. Prior to the riders meeting, VMC secretary Meaghan Symes read a pamphlet about George and his involvement in the club. This was the last of five trials counting towards the VMC's championships in each of the classes. Three loops of ten sections each, all with varying levels of difficulty for the different classes, were ridden. Rain on the previous days and on event day had made for some slippery, challenging sections but all seemed to enjoy themselves. It was nice to see a good contingent of Junior riders entered. Thanks to the committee consisting of:- Steve Mawer, Kevin Ash, Don Venn, Hugh Williams, Brandon Volk, Liam Donaldson & Andrew Watson. Also a big thanks to Susan Fair and Meaghan Symes for looking after sign up and score keeping.
